

The Man in the Hospital Dream

This dream was given to one of our members, who works in a hospital at the information desk. It is a marvelous illustration of the principle that the personal setting of the dreamer in real life are often used as meaningful settings for the dream. Also, the dreamer's function in real life may be used to illustrate a principle that not only applies to the dreamer but others as well in "her group," of which she is a representative in the dream. Hence the dream is not just for the dreamer, but the whole group to which she belongs. The "group" may be a family, a clan, a tribe, a class, a nation or those living in an era of the world. In this case, "the group" is the presently "gathering Israel from the Ten Tribes" of which she is an ardent new member. As such, the dreamer with this dream is serving a "prophetic" function for our times. The dream has two dates for it was continued the next day.

The Dream

November, 28, 29, 2009

"This morning I woke up around 8:00. I was in twilight sleep, I guess you call it that. Not a real sound sleep, because I woke up at 5:00 originally and decided to fall back to sleep for a while longer. I work in a hospital and I work at the information desk in the front lobby. I have a very visible job and direct people to their destination and help with patients arriving. I sit at a long counter with my computer.

In the dream, I was in my work place sitting at the end of the counter, and I was holding a toy cell phone that I had bought for my grandson. The toy cell phone was big, about the size of a box of Kleenex. It was bright yellow and had big red buttons on it to dial. I pressed one of the buttons and it started to play a song, like a ringtone, it was a Salsa tune, and very loud and annoying and I fumbled to try to turn it off so it would not draw attention, but someone noticed and came over to me and watched as I tried to turn the thing off. The hospital was very busy that day, suddenly a man walked in and started to make his way through the hospital. This man was a giant in his size, huge. He had to duck to go through the doorway. What I noticed about the giant man was that he was extremely appealing in his looks and his physique. he had a muscular body and well built. He walked with confidence as if he was used to people staring at him and he did not care, it did not bother him. Never the less, I had concern for him and I did not want people to stare at him, I did not want him to feel uncomfortable. I was standing and someone next to me, his face glowing and eyes wide said, "AMAZING," As the giant made his way down the hallway, all the people looked at him anyway, I was wishing they would not stare, but he continued as if not even noticing the stares."

Interpretation

December 1, 2009

The text in maroon fonts in the blue texts of the dream are the author's highlights of the dream and his comments on them. All scripture quotations are in blue with emphases in maroon.

“This morning I woke up around 8:00. I was in twilight sleep,

You are in the "Twilight Zone" of God's "reality show." The "twilight" is between night and day, we are in that time of the evening just before the morning of the third day, when we will be redeemed, (Hos. 6:3, Mal 4:2 / 3:20).

I guess you call it that. Not a real sound sleep, because I have to wake up at 5:00 originally

You are one of the "early risers" from the dead, (Ez. 37) for sleep is a form of death, and vice versa. (Psalm 76:6).

The early risers are rising to do the "work" that needs to be done for others who rise later.

and decided to fall back to sleep for a while longer. I work in a hospital

You are placed to work where "the sick of Israel" are, not just the physically sick, but you have been called to work in a time and place of the "spiritually sick" of Israel, i.e. where “the sick” and injured are gathered.

and I work at the information desk in the front lobby. I have a very visible job and direct people to their destination and help with patients arriving.

You have been placed to receive and give out information for those "who seek it" and those who are sent to you. (Joel 2:32).

I sit at a long counter

There is plenty of room to accommodate many people to line up. This was obviously planned for a long time ago.

with my computer.

You are plugged into a vast "Information Source" far away from you, but paradoxically is also very near

In the dream, I was in my work place sitting at the end of the counter,

You are placed where you need to be, at the end of the counter, because many will be seeking “information” that you have. Your job and function in the hospital is a part of a greater service and function that a hospital is and does. It is depicting your task, your “work” where you have been placed in a greater “Work,” the “Work of Eli Y-h.”

and I was holding a toy cell phone that I had bought for my grandson. The toy cell phone was big,

God's Truth is plain and easy to see... (Deut. 30:14) like the cell phone it is "in our mouth."

about the size of a box of Kleenex.

The means of communication you have is large, easy for all “to see.” It is “talking” in plain language to the “Information Source,” otherwise known as “prayer.” The phone depicts the means of prayer; asking for more specific information, asking for needs, and informing about “emergencies,” as well as receiving the same. It is also a means to have someone paged. As such, you can serve as means to hand out the Divine call to someone, from a “Higher Source.”

It was bright yellow

A bright yellow has several meanings, all of which apply here:

Yellow is a happy and encouraging color, a bringer of the "good news."

Yellow is the color of intuition, premonition, and perceptions.

Your intuition in this "work" is / will be guided with signals "from afar," and you are directing people, "these spiritual children" to receive the same who "call" on it, or "receive a call" on it.

This warm yellow is also the color of the radiant energy of the sun; it is a symbol of optimism, joy and spirit and of extreme motivation and activity, all attributes of GOD's POWER that has a MASCULINE polarity. It is very motivating and ENERGIZING, in fact, it is like a sperm, which is a quintessential expression of this polarity, full of THE ESSENCE OF MASCULINE ENERGY that stirs the dormant egg to LIFE...

This "energy" is alluded to in the Ez. 37, where the bodies that stand up are really not alive, but are like "zombies," till they are "ensouled" i.e. energized by HIS LIFE-and had big red buttons on it to dial.

You are to give out basic information, easy for "spiritual children" to understand and "work," they are to "CALL on the name of the GOD of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, (pictured by the alpha-numeric "texting" buttons of a cell phone). Those lining up at the counter, can receive G-d's call and / or can call to G-d through the means that you can demonstrate and give out.

This tells us all about "calling" that we understand in our age, the phone is a device of calling, one hears someone call and one also can call "out" on it. It reminds us of Joel 2:32, Some the L-RD will call, and some will call on the name of "the L-RD, the TRUE GOD of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

I pressed one of the buttons and it started to play a song, like a ringtone, it was a Salsa tune, and very loud and annoying

It is "the noise" in Ez. 37:7 that wakes up people from their spiritual sleep of death and I fumbled to try to turn it off so it would not draw attention, but someone noticed and came over to me and watched as I tried to turn the thing off.

God's calling will come through in way / language / "noise" that "the children" can understand and resonate to in our modern age. It is tailored to them and for them, modern "spiritual children." (Last verse of Malach, Deut 30:2).

And I was thinking this at the time. The man standing next to me who said "AMAZING," his face was bright and it reminded me of a child's face always full of wonder, bright, curious, innocent.

Some in this generation are that way, like children who know nothing, like the people in Niniveh, they do not know their right hand from the left hand and are ready to learn and we reach out to them and tell them the message... this is the real "Gospel" the one of repentance and the coming "kingdom," according to some analogous to the mission of Yonah, and according to some, has aspects of the work of Messiah ben Joseph, see Joe's article in the forum.

The same goes for the man who was watching me try to turn off the toy cell phone.

Another "child" of Israel who is listening and hearing Divine "the call"

The hospital was very busy

We have a LOT of Israel being sick and injured today “that day,”

Yeah, "THAT DAY" the DAY of the L-RD

HaShem's redemption comes to us and WILL COME TO US suddenly, out of the Blue...

a man walked in and started to make his way through the hospital.

Hashem is entering boldly into the "house" where all His "sick ones" are.

This man was a giant in his size, huge. He had to duck to go through the doorway. What I noticed about the giant man was that he was extremely appealing in his looks and his physique. He had a muscular body and was well built.

The very masculine appearing man is a picture of HaShem's POWER, that has a VERY DESIRABLE and ADMIRABLE MASCULINE POLARITY to it in this dream. This expression of masculine power and polarity is VERY attractive to men and women in the physical sense. Men want to be like him, and women are attracted to him for obvious reasons, (Songs 5:9-16). Chapter 5 of Songs is a picture of God as Israel's loving husband, she is asleep, but her heart/soul is waiting for her body (in Ez 37) to be awakened, she waits for Him, but she cannot find HIM, the "watchmen" are important here... she has to sort some things out in verse 9, comparing him to other "men," she finally will recognize His super attributes, (verses 10-16). This is an expression of the attractiveness of God's power and Truth expressed in the masculine polarity. The reason this is important, is because with His strong, masculine, well-muscled, powerful arm He will gather His people. This is the MASCULINE work of Eli- Yah! [MY-God Yah!] HE is Super-HU-MAN!

Comment: His is "the arm" I saw in a vision during prayer last year... it was gathering the stars... Abraham's children. [I am using that image on one of the pages of Shaar-Israel].

“Thou art the God that does wonders; Thou hast made known Thy strength among the peoples.

Thou hast with Thine arm redeemed Thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah”
— Psalm 77:14-15

Prophetically, in many ways, Psalm 77 is written to the Ten Tribes.

As the giant man made his way into the lobby of the hospital he was very bulky Again, the depiction of the STRENGTH of God is very prominent, telling us to have faith in His ability to do his mission, to "deliver" what needs do be delivered and to save what needs to be saved.

He walked with confidence as if he was used to people staring at him and he did not care, it did not bother him. Never the less, I had concern for him and I did not want people to stare at him, I did not want him to feel uncomfortable.

This is a "human" reaction of trying to understand God's manifestation of His work before you at this time.

I was standing and someone next to me, his face glowing and eyes wide said, "AMAZING,"

People will be "astounded" when they will see the POWER of TRUTH healing and gathering His people!!! It is G-d's statement often depicted in the Prophets at work here: "And you shall know that I am the L-RD!"

As the giant man made his way into the lobby of the hospital he was very bulky

Again, the depiction of the STRENGTH of God is very prominent, telling us to have faith in His ability to do his mission, to "deliver" what needs do be delivered and to save.

because of his size he made long fast strides to his destination.

It is written, "in its time I will hasten it" (Isa. 60:22), the connotation of the word "hasten" means, "it may occur "earlier." This tells us that His Work" (Isa. 5:19), this "hastening" of His word, i.e. His command to get events rolling is on the way as it has been done before. (Jer. 1:12).

Author's note: The following scene was not immediately seen by the dreamer in the first dream, but later in the continuation of the dream.

There were a group of men that came in with him that I will call an "entourage." This name came to me immediately. About 6 or 7 of them and they were at his side and back but not in front of him.

These could be "the seven eyes of God," his supernatural servants, Zech. 3 and Rev. 5. Since He guides with his "eyes" the way we should go, (Psalm 32:7). They are probably "the watchers" of Dan. 4:23.

They were keeping step with the giant as he moved swiftly.

The fact that they are keeping in step with Him tells that they are supernatural as well,

They were wearing dark colors, like black.

They are wearing black, for it is the color of concealment, like the "invisible" manipulators of the puppets in the Japanese Bunraku plays: <http://www.asianinterstage.com/tonda/>

They are unobtrusive and normally invisible to humans, and we are not supposed to focus on them, (in Bonraku their faces are even hooded) for they were not even shown in the first dream, because they are "invisible" to us, they manipulate the players and events, (WE ARE NOT SUPPOSED TO INTERFACE WITH ANGELS as the "fashionable rage" has been about this lately), In this PR, His servants are shown to you, telling us that all is going on according to His will, and His plan is working out in history, AND IS HASTENED.

Rabbi Ariel bar Tzaddok commented on this "arrival" of some "special entities" THIS spring, [2009] that "they" are already in the world.

At the time I had a sense about this as well. In short it seems to be an emergency for G-d sends these servants to go to work because a great spiritual evil spirit / force has been also released into the world at the same time, probably the one in Zachariah 5:7, the opposite / negative counterpart of the Holy Spirit. "SHE" influences to the negative, i.e. deceives and seduces the whole world across the board on all levels. In short, "she" has been released from her place of restraint from another dimension and has come into our time and space, like the "goddess" in the first Ghostbusters movie so well illustrates. Truly "woe" to the world...

They were small in comparison to him and came up to his knee's.

They are His angelic servants

The giant man had black hair that was all one length and came just below his ear lobes and it was back behind his ears. His physique was well built and he was wearing a short sleeved shirt kind of form-fitting and it was tan in color, his pants were brown.

No comments on this except that His strength is quite visible to us and will be demonstrated to the whole world.

I would like to interject here what I was thinking as I looked at the giant man. At first when I saw him, realizing he was so huge, my thoughts, in the dream were of a real famous giant whose name was Andre, the giant.

I remember him, he died some time ago...

He was a wrestler in the 70's, but his looks were grotesque, or distorted but this giant was nothing like Andre, he was perfect.

Because like you said, this dream image is not depicting a deformed man, but is a dream image of God's power, that we humans can understand and relate to, for we are created in the image of God, and He is PERFECT in EVERY WAY.

And I was thinking this at the time. The man standing next to me who said "AMAZING", his face was bright and it reminded me of a child's face always full of wonder, bright, curious, innocent.

Some in this generation are that way, like children who know nothing, like the people in Niniveh, they do not know their right hand from the left hand and are ready to learn. We are to be ready to reach out to them and tell them the message of the true G-d... this is the real "Gospel" the one of repentance and the coming "kingdom." According to some, our task is analogous to the mission of Yonah, and according to some, has aspects of the work of Messiah ben Joseph, (see Joe's article in the Shaar-Israel.org forum).

The same goes for the man who was watching me try to turn off the toy cell phone.

This is depicting another "child" of Israel who is listening and hearing Divine "the call." As the giant made his way down the hallway, all the people looked at him anyway,

God's POWER will attract a LOT of attention, He is Super-Human, the manifestation of His power is a CALL of "Heads UP!!!"

I was wishing they would not stare, but he continued as if not even noticing the stares.

Since this dream I am not the same. I am flooded with deep emotion, I am overwhelmed. As I looked at the giant man, I immediately broke down in tears as my emotions took over. Why? It all became so clear to me now. If the giant represents HaShem in the dream, I am crying because I no longer want people to look upon Him as they do now, like a freak. The people have mis-represented Him in such a gross way, not knowing who He really is. That is why I did not want the people to stare at Him in this light. It is not who He is, He is not a FREAK. I long for the day when He will reveal Himself as who He really is. That glorious GOD of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! I wanted to defend Him and protect Him and I felt bad because I could not. He deserves so much more because of who He is. As I am writing this, my emotions are taking over. I am literally shaking!! ENOUGH IS ENOUGH, SHOW FORTH YOUR GLORY TO THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH, OH, GRACIOUS AND LOVING FATHER, DO IT NOW, FOR YOUR NAMES SAKE! I feel emboldened to make this my prayer!

When the giant walked into a wider area, moving toward the hallway, that is where he encountered all the people, who looked up at him as he passed through them all. They just looked up, no expression here. They were not feeling any fear, or judgment, just looking up at him.

This scene reminds me of the fact that NOT all people will immediately recognize God manifesting His power in the world. They will look at the remarkable events, but will not know what is going on, they are perceptually "blind."

At this point I asked Hashem, where He was going and He answered me, "To the emergency room."

Yeah, it is a great emergency where His people are, in the house of sickness where Israel & the world is. We are surely in bad shape, needing an emergency intervention.

I then asked Him why the giant was taking the route he was taking because it is the "long" way to get to the ER from the lobby, and He said to me, "Because it is the road less traveled." After He said this to me I thought about a poem by Robert Frost called "the road less traveled."

The Road Less Traveled is a remarkable best-seller book (and first in a great series), by an exceptionally spiritually astute psychiatrist Scott Peck, about the Way of Righteousness. This is "the way of Righteousness" that is pointed out to us in modern times, for we need to follow "the way" He is showing us. There is no "quick" way that many sell today, of "spray-on-righteousness" in "ten easy lessons," etc., that many gurus are "selling" today... BTW, G-d's Way is "free" Isa. 55:1

I would like to tell you that in my hospital, the ER has its own entrance with easy access and parking but people do not read signs and so they come in through the front entrance and ask where the ER is located and I have to direct them to the other end of the hospital because the ER is way at the other end and a long distance to walk to get there. People are usually very irritated when I tell them this. They do not want to walk any distance to get there. They do not want the inconvenience of having to walk very far.

Yes, "the Road Less Traveled," the way of the Torah, is not appealing to many, and those who have a spiritual emergency, want to take the short cut... this "longer way" is a paradox, it is longer, but if we follow God's direction for this Way of Righteousness, it will take us where we need to be, it will "train" us in the "way we should go."

Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, the Revealer of Secrets, who has revealed us the meaning of dreams!! He shall reveal to us more as we seek His face.....

I am so glad for you and for all of us that OUR God is working with us in such a powerful way and we are participants in His "Work." This dream and Work gives a whole different meaning to the story of "Superman" and the idea of being "begotten by God," (Ez. 37:11-14).

This is indeed is an incredible PR! This type of PRs have been my hope for a long time, that He will reveal to us, to several people, what is what concerning some very basic and important issues for returning Ten Tribers. Now I am waiting for others to have the same or similar PR on the same issue. When the same PR will be given o others as well, one will confirm the other and they will not be arguable, except by those who do not want to believe what God is doing at this time or "restoration."

Just contemplate this: Your whole job up to now at this place is for the illustration of this dream's message... amazing... see, you will NEVER be the same again... OUR GOD IS GREAT!!!

The prophets' lives were illustrations of prophecies they were to give. A portion of your life is an illustration of this prophecy for many in a group of which you are an integral part.

With Moses we can say: "This is MY GOD!"

Welcome!! You are in "the army" NOW!!!

Summary:

This dream is truly an amazing depiction of a prophetic message that has ramifications not just for the dreamer, but also for the whole movement for presently gathering "remnant of Israel" in whose heart is the Torah. It underscores the point made by Shaar-Israel.org that we, the returnees will need Divine Guidance that comes through the agency of the holy Spirit that indwells the prayers of Israel. For this reason Shaar-israel.org advocates building "the Mishkan / tabernacle of Prayers."

We are to learn and be ready to hand out the information to those who come to us and who are sent to us for direction and spiritual healing. By the mercies of the G-d of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, we have been resurrected as "the first contingent to arise from the Valley of Dry Bones." (Ez. 37), to partake of the work of Elijah, i.e. "the Work of Eli Y-h."

Pray for the Guidance of the holy Spirit to be given to us. Pray for Israel's regathering. Pray that yourself and each and everyone of us be made ready to do the tasks you and we are supposed to do in this "work." join in the projects of Shaar-Israel.org. It is time.
